DCE 100 Introduction to Dance

42768,40898

Session A: May 16-June 26, 2018

Instructor of Record: Sumana Mandala, MFA Dance Candidate

Email: sumanadances@asu.edu

Technical Issues: holsupport@asu.edu

Course Description:

DCE 100 is an introduction to dance in the 21st century through the lens of a new approach to dance that acknowledges dance as a vital art where leadership, context, humanity and reflection provide centers of dynamic engagement.

Dear DCE 100 Student,

I have revised this online class for you introducing you to dance in the 21st century. I am part of the faculty that recreated a new approach to dance in the School of Film, Dance and Theatre.

This new approach began in 2007 when I, along with the other faculty here at that time, came together to create a new vision of dance, a new way to approach movement in a world where creativity was fast becoming the most important skill. By placing creativity at the center and realizing that as dancers the body is the main vehicle of communication we, as a faculty, created four areas that we feel are important to highlight for dance in the 21st century. These four areas are: leadership, context, humanity and reflection.

Through this online class you will create an online community to explore this 21st century view of dance. Each week you will read short essays I have written for you explaining ways to assemble and work with these new ideas about dance. You will write your ideas to participate in group discussion, you will listen and respond to your peers through peer response discussions. You will view dance and report weekly on the dance media you are asked to view. You will express the knowledge you have constructed for yourself in a final cumulative assignment. Your final project will creatively explore new meanings and new possibilities that you now engage in after having experienced the course.

This online class is unique in that I have created this revision for you, but I will not be teaching this class. To that end I have designed a simple survey you will take in week one so that your instructor will have a snapshot of who you as a student group are. Then as you begin your journey through this class your instructor will create one learning opportunity custom designed for you so that you can deepen the special interests that you as this particular student group have.

I hope your introduction to dance proves to be insightful and that as you emerge at the end of this class you are open to envisioning dance in the 21st century as a vital art.

– Dr. Cynthia Roses-Thema

Course Content Outline
- Introduction to Dance Now!
- Why Dance?
- Dance and Leadership
- Dance and Context
- Dance and Humanity
- Dance and Reflection
- Expression of Knowledge and Creative Project

5 Tips for your Success in this class:

- Take notes weekly on the PDFs and the media you watch. There are people, vocabulary words, dance names, ideas about dance that you will need to learn. Think of it as a treasure hunt when you engage with the material in this class. Use mind maps, draw, color your notes, Cornell Notes, etc. All of these will work. Take notes!

- Organize the notes so you know where things are as you go through the weeks. DO NOT WAIT till the last minute to highlight, put stickers or underline. This will not help you for the Expression of Knowledge assignment where you can use your notes but have a limited time to do the assignment. Organize ahead of time!

- Review weekly. You can do this simply by video or audio recording what you feel is important each week. Then listen to or view it during your day on campus or at work. Review!

- Ask questions. Check the student question discussion board to see if your question is already there and answered. If not, post a new one, and the instructor will answer your question on the discussion board within 48 hours. If your question is sensitive, and you do not want the entire class to read it, then email the instructor privately from your ASU email.

- Answer the discussion question.
  - In this online class, you are expected to write extensively to share your ideas in discussion with others. You also have to answer questions. Support your answers with examples from class materials—media, Dr. Roses-Thema’s PDFs—and, when appropriate, with your personal experience.
  - Here it gets tricky. When writing about personal experience, you may get so involved in that you forget to actually answer the question. This is common. Remember to refer back to the question often. Before posting your answer, re-read the question and your answer to make sure you have not digressed. Answer the question!

No late assignments accepted for any reason!

Late assignments are determined by the ASU time stamp that is on each of your discussion posts after you hit submit. And yes, it is possible to be 1 SECOND late! You are strongly advised to not wait until the day of the deadline to post your work as technological issues may arise. POST EARLY!

There are no make-ups or extra credit in this class. This class is challenging in terms of concepts and concept application. Thus, it is important for you to stay up-to-date with the work. Academic Integrity and Plagiarism
Students are expected to adhere to the ASU Student Code of Conduct. Besides academic performance, students should exhibit the qualities of honesty and integrity. Every student is expected to produce his/her original, independent work. Any student whose work indicates a violation of the ASU Academic Misconduct Policy including cheating, plagiarism, and dishonesty will be subject to disciplinary action. Plagiarism is defined as deliberately passing off someone else's words or ideas as your own. All necessary and appropriate sanctions will be issued to all parties involved with plagiarizing any and all course work. Plagiarism and any other form of academic dishonesty that is in violation with the Student Code of Conduct will not be tolerated. Arizona State University and the Herberger Institute for Design and the Arts expect the highest standards of academic integrity from all students. Failure to meet these standards may result in suspension or expulsion from the university or other sanctions as specified in the University Student Academic Integrity Policy. For more information, please see the ASU Student Academic Integrity Policy: http://provost.asu.edu/academicintegrity. Per ASU policy, a student may not avoid the consequences of academic dishonesty by withdrawing from a course, and may be placed back in the course in order to face sanctions resulting from academic integrity violations. You are responsible for abiding by this policy.

In addition, ASU adheres to a university-wide Student Code of Conduct. The philosophy behind this policy states: The aim of education is the intellectual, personal, social, and ethical development of the individual. The educational process is ideally conducted in an environment that encourages reasoned discourse, intellectual honesty, openness to constructive change and respect for the rights of all individuals. Self-discipline and a respect for the rights of others in the university community are necessary for the fulfillment of such goals. The Student Code of Conduct is designed to promote this environment at each of the state universities.

The ASU student academic integrity policy lists violations in detail. These violations fall into five broad areas that include but are not limited to:

1. Cheating on an academic evaluation or assignment.
2. Plagiarizing.
3. Academic deceit, such as fabricating data or information.
4. Aiding academic integrity policy violations and inappropriately collaborating.
5. Falsifying academic records.

Auditing
If you are auditing please check with the instructor in the first week as to your responsibilities.

Policy regarding Disruptive, Threatening or Violent Individuals
Please know that this class will handle any issues of a student's threatening behavior in accordance with the Student Services Manual SSM 104–02.

Incompletes
There is no guarantee that you will receive an incomplete, so it is not always the best option for you. All incompletes must satisfy the criteria set by the Director of the School of Film, Dance and Theater who is solely responsible for approving an incomplete. You must a grade of C or higher to be eligible for an incomplete. If you feel an incomplete is what you need email your instructor immediately. You cannot wait until the end of term and then decide you need an incomplete.
Online Course Expectations
IMPORTANT: This is an online course delivered entirely via the internet. You should proceed with this course only if you have previous computer and internet experience and you’re willing and able to assume the added personal responsibility of completing an online course.

- It is your responsibility to ensure you have adequate computer resources and fast enough internet service to view course materials, use the required multimedia textbook and course pack, and complete all online activities, screenings, assignments, etc.
- If your computer or internet service malfunctions at any time during the semester, it is your responsibility to locate adequate resources elsewhere or to withdraw from the course.
- It is strongly recommended that you do not wait until the last minute to submit your assignments, just in case of internet service disruptions at your location or other technical problems. Requests for extensions due to computer or internet malfunctions may not be granted.
- If you have technical questions or difficulties with the course site, please do not contact the instructor; instead, contact the ASU Help Center.

Time Management
Online classes provide the flexibility of “attending” class at the time that is most convenient for you, but you should still plan a schedule for each class. Online courses are just as rigorous as in-person courses, so expect your coursework to be challenging but rewarding.

For 7.5 week sessions, you should plan for 18 hours of coursework per week for every 3 credits.

For 15 week sessions, you should plan for 9 hours of coursework per week for every 3 credits.

Withdrawals
It is the student’s responsibility to withdraw from class in accordance Herberger Institute of Design and the Arts’ dates.

Student Conduct: You are expected to treat your instructor and your fellow classmates with respect and kindness. In all correspondence and in Discussion Board postings, you should show respect for the viewpoints of others who may disagree with you or see things from a different perspective. Criticizing, ridiculing, insulting, or belittling others will not be accepted. Keep in mind that electronic communications do not have the advantage of nonverbal cues that are so much a part of interpersonal communication. Humor or satire can sometimes be misinterpreted in strictly electronic communication forums.

Online Activity Logs: All course activity is logged by the Herberger Online servers, and those logs are regularly reviewed by Herberger Online during the course of normal business. These logs contain all requests you make while visiting the site: every image, video, web page, etc. Each request is logged with the time, down to the second, when it was made. If you contact your instructor, or Herberger Online, about a technical issue, these logs will be reviewed as part of that process.

Disruptive, Threatening or Violent Behavior: Threatening, violent, or disruptive behavior will not be tolerated in this class, and will be handled in accordance with ASU policy. For more information please visit: https://eoss.asu.edu/dos/srr/PoliciesAndProcedures and https://eoss.asu.edu/dos/safety/ThreateningBehavior.

Title IX: Title IX is a federal law that provides that no person be excluded on the basis of sex from participation in, be denied benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity. Both Title IX and university policy make clear that sexual violence and harassment based on sex is prohibited. An individual who believes they have been subjected to sexual violence or harassed on the basis of sex can seek support, including counseling and academic support, from the university. If you or someone you know has been harassed on the basis of sex or sexually assaulted, you can find information and resources at http://sexualviolenceprevention.asu.edu/faqs/students.

Netiquette - online etiquette: Netiquette, a social code that defines "good" online behavior is something to keep in mind during your online course interactions. Writing may be the only means of communication you have with classmates and instructors, so it is especially important to do this effectively. Follow the guidelines below to leave your mark as a knowledgeable, respectful and polite student who is also positioned to succeed professionally. Tips for appropriate netiquette can be found here, https://asuonline.asu.edu/newsroom/online-learning-tips/netiquette-online-students.

Special Accommodations: Your instructor is willing to make any reasonable adaptations for limitations due to any documented disability, including learning disabilities. Please contact the instructor during office hours or by appointment to discuss any special needs you may have. You must contact the Disability Resource Center to process the paperwork for special course accommodations. To request academic accommodations due to a disability, please contact the ASU Disability Resource Center (http://www.asu.edu/studentaffairs/ed/drc/# : Phone: (480) 965-1234; TDD: (480) 965-9000). This is a very important step as accommodations may be difficult to make retroactively. If you have a letter from their office indicating that you have a disability which requires academic accommodations, in order to assure that you receive your accommodations in a timely manner, please present this documentation to me no later than the end of the first week of the semester so that your needs can be addressed effectively.

Disability Support Services: Students with disabilities must have an equally effective and equivalent educational opportunity as those students without disabilities. Students experiencing difficulty accessing course materials because of a disability are expected to contact the course instructor so that a solution can be found that provides all students equal access to course materials and technology.

Information for Students with Disabilities: If you have a documented disability, including a learning disability, and would like to discuss possible accommodations, please contact the ASU Disabilities Resources and Services Office at 480-965-1234 or email DRC@asu.edu https://eoss.asu.edu/drc.
